Resolved to donate £300 to cover the costs.

FGP14/45 To consider any items relating to the management and running of the Kirton Klipper

September figures were good and have been passed to the Clerk. The Clerk had been given reports by the project manager. The new service will start on the 24th November, new timetables have been issued. Some passengers are unsure of the new times but it is hoped that it would settle down as passengers became used to it. The Town Hall will be opened on three mornings to offer coffee and biscuits whilst they wait for buses back.

The Annual Report was summarised for the committee. The Clerk would circulate a copy of this to all councillors.
