May 2023 Newsletter

A brief update on activities and news from Kirton in Lindsey Town Council.

Local Elections - 4th May 2023

The local elections saw an election by poll for Ridge Unitary Ward (Hibaldstow, Kirton in Lindsey and Redbourne), with 6 candidates standing for 2 seats and an uncontested election for Kirton in Lindsey Town Council with 9 candidates standing for 9 seats.

Ward Cllr Trevor Foster and Ward Cllr David Garritt were duly elected for Ridge Unitary Ward at North Lincolnshire Council and are able to assist with any concerns you might have about the local area and North Lincolnshire Council activities.

Cllr Adam Delsignore joins Kirton in Lindsey Town Council as one of 9 elected members through the uncontested election. Cllr Billy Boyd, Cllr Kathy Cooper, Cllr Hazel Fox, Cllr Pat Frankish, Cllr David Garritt, Cllr Karen Gunn, Cllr Joy Kofoed and Cllr Suzanne Stephenson return as your elected members.

At the Annual Meeting of Kirton in Lindsey Town Council held on 26th May the Mayor and Deputy Mayor for 2023-2024 were elected. The Mayor of Kirton in Lindsey for 2023-2024 is Cllr Hazel Fox and the Deputy Mayor of Kirton in Lindsey is Cllr Joy Kofoed.

Contact details for your Ward Cllrs and for all members of Kirton in Lindsey Town Council are published on the Town Council website and noticeboard outside the Diamond Jubilee Town Hall. Contact details are also included at the end of this months newsletter. Ward Cllrs information is also published on the North Lincolnshire Council website.

Coronation events for Kirton in Lindsey

The Kirton in Lindsey Town Council Events Working Group, in conjunction with Kirton in Lindsey Town Hall and the Kirton in Lindsey In Bloom group, put on a number of events across the Big Coronation Bank Holiday weekend at the beginning of May. The Picnic on the Green and Family Bingo in the Town Hall on Sunday 7th May were very well attended and the town was well decorated so thank you to everyone involved! We hope that you enjoyed coming together as a community to enjoy the excellent weather!

Look out for the Best Coronation Frontage Competition results which are on Page 4!

Annual Town Meeting update – draft minutes published

The annual event was well attended on 12th April with almost thirty people and over twenty reports from local groups and organisations. The Mayor, Cllr Joy Kofoed gave an update on key moments in her Mayoral year, PC Pearson attended to give a report from Humberside Police. Groups and organisations from the town who were represented at the meeting were fundraisers Cath & Adam Delsignore; North Notts & Lincs Community Rail Partnership; LIVES; Cycling Club; KLASSIC; St Andrew's United Church; Shop Local Pop-Up Market; Primary School; Kirton in Lindsey Society; Diamond Jubilee Town Hall; Town Hall Live; Kirton in Lindsey Entertainment Organisation; Outer School; In Bloom; Kirton First; Archery Club; North Lincolnshire Woodland Trust; Glanford & Lindsey Lions; Evergreens and Amateur Gardeners. Cheque board presentations were made to the groups attending who had applied for grants from the Town Council. Thank you to everyone who took part, by attending or by sending in reports about the good work going on all year in so many different ways throughout the town. The draft minutes from the meeting are now published on the Town Council website.

Police update

At the Annual Town Meeting, PC Pearson attended and gave an overview of the structure and demands of the local policing team and provided updates on current issues. He pleaded with residents to always report incidents so that data collection is provided to support the right level of policing. The following week the neighbourhood team were out across the ward as part of Retail Crime Week. They later offered thanks to those who stopped by and raised their concerns with them, and to the staff of local businesses who took the time to speak to them during their busy day. The police are looking to address the issues that were raised. A public surgery was held at the Diamond Jubilee Town Hall on 16th May and the next public surgery is planned to be held from 11am at Kirton in Lindsey Library on 17th June. Make a note of the date and head along to have a chat with the local policing team who look after Kirton in Lindsey and the surrounding area, or raise any concerns you might have with them.

War Graves Week

20-28th May was War Graves Week and the Commonwealth War Graves Commission has a wealth of information about the graves they care for.

There are Commonwealth War Graves at both St Andrew's Churchyard and at Grove Street Cemetery here in Kirton in Lindsey.

Pat Horton has spent time gathering together information which she has shared on the 'Memories of RAF Kirton in Lindsey' Facebook page amongst other places. These include the details about most of those who are buried at Grove Street Cemetery.

War Graves Week provides a focused opportunity for everyone to discover, learn and remember.

Best Coronation Frontage Competition results

The Kirton in Lindsey Town Council Tourism Group held a competition for the best decorated Coronation Frontage with judging taking place around the Big Coronation Bank Holiday weekend.

Members of the group decided the winners from the two categories – Commercial and Residential and awarded The Old Butchers Bistro and 4a Spa Hill with their prizes.

Each winner received a rosette, box of chocolates from No. 12 Chocolatier, certificate and letter of congratulations.

The town was very well decorated throughout, and the efforts of the volunteers from the Royal British Legion in decorating the Market Place were greatly appreciated.
