Accessibility Statement

Kirton in Lindsey Town Council has taken steps to ensure that this website complies with accessibility guidelines.

Our Accessibility Statement follows below:

Accessibility statement for kirtoninlindseytowncouncil.gov.uk

This website is run by Kirton in Lindsey Town Council. We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- change colours, contrast levels and fonts
- zoom in up to 300% without the text spilling off the screen
- navigate most of the website using a keyboard or speech recognition software
- listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We have tried to make the website text as simple as possible to understand.

AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

How accessible this website is
We aim to meet WCAG 2.2AA standard. We know some parts of this website may not be fully accessible.

What to do if you can't access parts of this website
If you need information on this website in a different format:

- email enquiries@kirtoninlindseytowncouncil.gov.uk

We will consider your request and get back to you as soon as possible.

Reporting accessibility problems with this website
We are always looking to improve the accessibility of this website. If you find any problems that are not listed on this page or think we're not meeting accessibility requirements, contact the Town Clerk by emailing the issue to: enquiries@kirtoninlindseytowncouncil.gov.uk

Third Party Content
Our website may link to third party websites and content. We are not responsible for these third party resources and their accessibility. If you need assistance from those third party websites, please contact the website owners directly. We aim to link to accessible content.

Enforcement procedure
The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No.2) Accessibility

Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Contacting us by phone or visiting us in person
You can contact the Town Council via phone on 01652 648978, e-mail us at enquiries@kirtoninlindseytowncouncil.gov.uk or visit us at The Town Council Office, Town Hall, High Street, Kirton in Lindsey, North Lincolnshire, DN21 4LZ.

Technical information about this website's accessibility
Kirton in Lindsey Town Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

This website is currently working towards full compliance with the Website Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.2AA standard.

Content that's not within the scope of the accessibility regulations

Our older PDFs and Word documents don't meet accessibility standards – for example, they may not be structured so they're accessible to a screen reader. The accessibility regulations don't require us to make PDFs or other documents published before 23 September 2018 accessible if they're not essential to providing our services. Any new PDFs or Word documents we publish will meet accessibility standards.

Kirton in Lindsey Town Council is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the guidance set down by the W3C specifically WCAG. We are aiming to improve the level of accessibility all the time and welcome comments on further ideas on improving.
